Wolfwood Refuge Thanks the Community

Wolfwood Refuge wrapped up its 2018 season with their Annual Art Auction at the DSNRR Grange on September 22nd. This event provides the means for the Refuge to care for 70 animals throughout the winter months. This was a difficult year for many businesses and individuals throughout La Plata County and the State. In light of those challenges, so many people and businesses gave what they could to support the animals.

Most recently donations were received from: DSNRR, Durango Harley-Davidson, Bloom Café, Animas Laser Therapy, Baked, Brew, Carver's Brewing, Cuckoo's, Durango Chef, El Moro, Four Leaves Winery, Fired Up Pizza, Fox Fire Farms, Home Slice Pizza, Ignacio Floral, Irish Embassy, Ken & Sue's, Lacey Black, Liquor World, Fifty/Fifty, Manna Soup Kitchen, Los Amigos Del Sur, May Palace, Mutu's Italian Kitchen, Neil Agency Auctioneers, Olde Tymers, The Palace, Serious Texas Bar-B-Q, SKA, Star Liquors, T's Smokehouse & Grill, Upper East Side Liquor, Wildcat Canyon Liquors, Zuberfizz Durango Soda Company, combined with all of the 100s of live and silent auction donors and over 40 volunteers.

Throughout our 2018 season we were welcomed to Purgatory, Three Springs, Pagosa Brewery, Hermit Part, Five Branches, and Lake City. Thousands of people came out to see the wolves and listen to the presentations. We also enjoyed meeting people while traveling to our destinations. Each time we stopped for gas or a quick snack crowds gathered to learn more about our mission and the animals.

We are deeply grateful for all of the support and encouragement....and yes, even the wolves are howling with gratitude.
